Increase the Strategic Value of IT with the Cloud

Technology continues to increase in importance and has become even more critical in the activities that drive growth, innovation and competitive advantage.

Gartner CEO Business Priorities Survey

"IT-related priorities, cited by 31 percent of CEOs, have never been this high in the history of the CEO survey,"

Mark Raskino
Vice President and Gartner Fellow

Bioventus Durham, NC

Bioventus was a spin-off that needed to separate from its parent company. The IT group had 5 months to stand up voice, video, and infrastructure for the new global firm. They had limited budget and only two people to make it all work.

Solution

Hosted Voice and Video and Infrastructure as a Service(IaaS)

Benefits

- Implemented and managed sprawling network very quickly
- Exemplified the Bioventus reputation for innovation
- Established an IT practice with a budget of <2.5% of sales
- Business-level agility and flexibility
- IT team achieved quality of service and support required
